ITALY SUGGESTS PEACE TERMS. Paris, Sept. 11.—A special dispatch rom Rome says that the Italian minster of foreign affairs, Marquis Vis-onti Venosta, has addressed to the owers a note proposing negotiations with China on the following basis: First-The evacuation of Pekin as een signed Second—The participation and sup-cort of the powers in enabling China to contract alone to pay the indemni-

Third-The maintenance of the in tegrity of the Chinese empire by the collective engagement of the powers. LI'S CREDENTIALS O. K.

London, Sept. 11.—The Chinese min-ister in London, Sir Chin Chen Lo Fens Luh, is understood to have received from Li Hung Chang a copy of the credentials, emanating from the imperial household, appointing the plenspoten-tiaries to conduct the negotiations for eace and laying down the conditions in lation thereto

It is intimated that similar docu-nents have been transmitted to the hinese ministers at other capitals, and that the credentials are such as will satisfy the American and European governments.

Sir Chih Chen Lo Feng Luh informed a representative of the Associated Press that he had received a decree similar to the one Wu Ting Fang, (the Chinese minister to the United States). inded to the state department at ashington, and added that he person ally transmitted the decree to the foreign office this afternoon. HARMONY AT PEKIN.

Shanghai, Sept. 10.—(Copyright, 1900, by the Associated Press).—The Taku steamer which has arrived here, brings reports of the latest events in Pekin. These advices are to the effect that the greatest harmony prevails among the other with extreme courtesy, and that the soldiers are living as though mem-bers of one army. Late arrivals say that if any clash occurs during the occupation of Pekin, it will be brought on by the diplomats in Europe and not by the soldiers in the field

MARCH THROUGH THE PALACE. The march through the palace was historic event. Every army was represented. The Russians led and the roops of other nationalities followed in the order previously reported by cable. Each regiment of Americans who parcipated in the relief of Pekin was represented by about 150 men, General Chaffee, Gen. Barry and other officers, leading. A Russian band and the Sikhs' bagpipes played national airs while the troops filed through the grounds and buildings. There were many eunuchs attached to the palace remaining, and they stood by looking They were evidently deeply umiliated. After the procession, which began to move at 8 o'clock in the morning and was an hour and a half in passing through the grounds, a party ians, including the legation ladies and some prominent missionaries, were admitted. Tea was served to them, and the palace was inspected.

The most remarkable features of the buildings are said to be the guilded exerior staircases, carved from single stones, with dragons, lions and other ornaments. The empress' bed is trimmed with solid gold. After the nspection, the palace gates were again closed and no one was permitted to enter the grounds. The troops arriving here are forwarded to Pekin as fast as they land.

PEKIN IS LOOTED. The ministers remain in Pekin. The city has been entirely looted, except the palace, and auction sales of loot, in which valuable silks, furs, and onzes are the principal articles, are held daily. The chief t sales are army officers. The chief bidders at these The newspaper correspondents had a controversy with the officers, who at first proposed that no correspondent should be admitted to the palace with
